Klara provides advice to public clients and bidders on all matters relating to public procurement law. As well as assisting public clients in proceedings under the VgV, VOB/A and UVgO, she supports companies in procurement procedures, such as reviewing tender and bid documents and handling complaints. Another focus of her work is representation in review proceedings before procurement chambers and procurement senates.

She also advises municipalities and other public-law corporations on all matters relating to public commercial law.
